

The 10th East Asia International Symposium on Teacher Education.

Hitomi Goto

President

Aichi University of Education

Thanks to all the participants and also the beautiful weather, we were able to hold successfully the 10th East Asia International Symposium on Teacher Education. We are very much obliged to the great support of all the members of International Consortium for Universities of Education in East Asia. The Symposium with “The Development of Teacher Education in the Global Era” as its theme, was graced with 222 participants from 58 educational institutions. Thank you again for your wonderful help to make this symposium such a success.

I hope we can continue or even develop this successful relationship of ours hereafter, and also I wish you a good health and continued prosperity.

The proceedings from presenters are uploaded and available on the website.
